GUIDELINES AND INSTRUCTIONS

All financial information and documents submitted to UCA will be treated as confidential.

The application does not guarantee award of financial aid. UCA will grant awards according to the demonstrated financial needs, subject to verification and University policies.

The University reserves the right to verify applicant's information from a recognised source, a third party or visitation and/or request additional documents or explanation of information or circumstances.

Please note that by signing the documents as part of Financial Aid Application package, you are certifying that all information provided therein, whether prepared by you or not, is complete and true in all respect. Concealing information or providing incorrect information will result in denial of financial aid and may also result in strict disciplinary action, including possible expulsion from the University.

A student has the right to apply for a review only ONCE if dissatisfied with UCA's Financial Aid Committee's decision. However, the University's resulting decision to such a review will be final.

SECTION G: Undertaking

1. We understand that submitting a Financial Aid Application does not guarantee financial aid, nor does it absolve us of any financial responsibility towards the University of Central Asia's education costs.
2. UCA has our permission to verify information provided by obtaining documentation needed or through other sources.
3. We confirm our permission to allow UCA or any authorised personnel assigned by UCA to visit our land and property, place of living and place of business to examine and verify information. We also agree to provide additional information/documents as and when requested by UCA.
4. We certify that all the information and documents provided as part of Financial Aid Application are true, correct and complete. We understand that any misrepresentation, omission, failure to provide supporting documents, concealing information or providing incorrect information will result in denial of financial aid and may also result in strict disciplinary action, subject to UCA's policies and/or applicable country law.
5. We understand that UCA reserves the right to deny financial aid to anyone whom it considers not qualified, and to require withdrawal of any student at any time for any reason it considers sufficient, including academic standing, and personal conduct.
6. We agree to abide by the decision of the Financial Aid Committee. We also certify that we act voluntarily and we lay no claims against the University, UCA's governing body, University management and personnel.
